Generation No. 1

1. ROBERT GUDGEON¹ CUTCHIN I was born 1638.

Notes for ROBERT GUDGEON CUTCHIN I:

Although, I can not find any proof of this, I think that Robert is the third brother that came over to the new world. I am not sure if he came through Jamestown or not, he may have come directly into MD.

Children of ROBERT GUDGEON CUTCHIN I are:

- i. WILLIAM GUDGEON² CUTCHIN, b. February 1665, Anne Arudel Co., MD.
2. ii. ROBERT GUDGEON CUTCHIN II, b. 1668, Anne Arudel Co., MD; d. March 30, 1718, Baltimore Co., MD.
- iii. LAWRENCE GUDGEON CUTCHIN, b. 1670, Anne Arudel Co., MD.
3. iv. JOHN GUDGEON CUTCHIN, b. 1674, Anne Arudel Co., MD; d. November 1710.
- v. THOMAS GUDGEON CUTCHIN, b. 1676, Anne Arudel Co., MD; m. JANE HICKS, October 28, 1713, St. John Parish, Harford., MD.

Notes for THOMAS GUDGEON CUTCHIN:

According to Colonial America records, he paid taxes in 1702, 1703, 1704, 1705, and 1706 for land in Baltimore Co., MD. The location was listed as North Side Gunpowder.

He was also owed money. The people that owed him money are listed bellow.

Generation No. 2

2. ROBERT GUDGEON² CUTCHIN II (*ROBERT GUDGEON*¹) was born 1668 in Anne Arudel Co., MD, and died March 30, 1718 in Baltimore Co., MD. He married DOROTHY GROOME November 11, 1702 in Anne Arudel Co., MD, daughter of MOSES GROOME and ANNE. She was born 1674 in Anne Arudel Co., MD, and died October 14, 1744.

Notes for ROBERT GUDGEON CUTCHIN II:

According to Colonial America records, he paid taxes in 1701, 1702, 1703, 1704, 1705, and 1706 for land in Baltimore Co., MD. The location was listed as North Side Gunpowder.

In 1675, he claimed land for service.

In November 1702, he bought 158 acres called Sicklemore's Dock from Samuel and Sarah Sicklemore.

In November 1705, he bought 200 acres called Holland's Adventure from Francis Watkins.

In March 1716, he was reimbursed for taking care of Charles Hewitt.

Many people owed him money and paid him, I think he was a banker. The list of the people who owed him money is bellow.

Note - I can only assume these were all him, I know it seems like a lot, but he surely was owed the money between 1707-1711 because his children where very young.

He was appraised on 3/6/1728. He had 13.442 acres of land and was worth 59.18.6. His next of kin was mentioned as being Robert Cutchin and Elizabeth Cutchin.

He administered the inventory for John Bradshaw Sr. on 1/12/1724, 9/14/1725, 5/10/1726, and 8/3/1726.

Notes for DOROTHY GROOME:

She administered her fathers inventory in 1701, 1702, and 1707.

On August 1719, she was ordered to examine Kate Kereven because she claimed that her mistress kicked and beat her. Kate was a servant of John Roberts. She may have been a Doctor.

She administered her husbands inventory on 3/6/1728.

William Pickett - 9/8/1724

He was appraised on 4/11/1738 and it was recorded on 7/17/1738, his next of kin was his son Thomas Cutchin and it was administrated by his wife.

He was appraised on 4/2/1740 and he had 17.464 acres of land. He was worth 19.0.7 at that time.

He was appraised on 10/14/1745 and he had 22.7 Acres of land at that time. It was administered by his wife and it mentioned that both he and his parents were deceased. Robert's estate was handed over to John Bradshaw the son of John Bradshaw who was also deceased. The deceased John Bradshaw paid money to Robert's father.

Notes for WINIFORD BRERETON:

Richard Brereton of Somerset Co., MD was the Brother of Winiford. His will dated 1/5/1743 and recorded on 1/20/1743 mentioned her as a sister. Her name was misspelled as Winiford Cutalerin. There was also a cousin mentioned who's name was Bigging Cutching. This person was probably a Cutchin, because the name Cutching is seen as a misspelled last name for Cutchin throughout history especially in MD. This person may have been her son Begging Cutchin.
